

JOIN US FOR A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

Demystifying Collaboration: Maximizing Organizational Impact in a Challenging Economy

DATE: Monday, September 8, 2014

TIME: 1:00 p.m.—4:00 p.m.

LOCATION: The Lyceum, 227 Lawrence Street, Hartford, CT 06106

Moderated by Madelyn Colon

Speaker: Jane Arsenault, MBA
Principal, FIO Partners

INCREASING IMPACT THROUGH COLLABORATION

PANEL DISCUSSION

Development and Evolution of the Parkville Neighborhood Collaborative

Cándida Flores, CEO, Family Life Education, Inc
Susan Walkama, President and CEO, Wheeler Clinic

A Story of Success:

Lisa Bahadosingh, Team Leader, Bridgeport Housing First Collaborative

A Funder's Perspective: Why is Collaboration Important?

David Davison, President and CEO
American Savings Foundation

Why Collaboration Makes Sense

Terry Edelstein, Non-Profit Liaison, Governor's Office

Presented by the Parkville Neighborhood Collaborative (PNC), a collaboration supported and developed by Family Life Education, Inc. (FLE) In partnership with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Minority Health Resource Center.

PNC member organizations: Family Life Education, Wheeler Clinic, Hispanic Health Council, Hands on Hartford.

This event is FREE of charge. Seating is limited.

To register, please call Brenda Laureano at 860-231-7744 by: September 1, 2014
or email: Brenda@familylifeedu.org